The Vortex is psychology and mental health book. It tells about the point where the law of attraction assembles all of the cooperative types of relationships. The book is written by Esther Hicks and Jerry Hicks. Esther Hicks is an American writer and an inspirational speaker. She has co-authored nearly 10 books with Jerry Hicks, who is her late husband. They both have been wonderful with their nonfictional stuff on personal development. The highly recommended book written by the authors' duo on personal development is Money and the Law of Attraction. After finishing this one, you must also try their The Astonishing Power of Emotions book. Jerry Hicks narrated this audiobook. It was quite a satisfactory performance by Jerry where listeners had a good time with this audiobook while having no issues at all with the vocal performance. The Vortex This is a kind of psychology and mental health book that uncovers a range of false premises which are at the core of almost every uncomfortable relationship. This book ideally guides you to clear about the understanding of the resourceful creative Vortex which has assembled what you desire in the relationships. The authors will show you that how one could enter into the Vortex. Free Audiobook The Vortex That would be the place where you will be able to rendezvous with everyone and everything which you have been looking for. You must give this book a try. There were a few things repeated by the authors from their prior books. It is mainly due to reinforcing the concepts that they want to further elaborate. This was kind of off-putting for those who have gone through the previous books of the authors.
